

About Chad

Chad is a 27 year old young man who lives with Cerebral Palsy and is a very active wheelchair user. He graduated from Milwaukee Area Technical College in the spring of 2006 with an Associate Degree in the Visual Communications Program, (Web Site Design & Computer Graphics). His dream job is to work for a pro sports team in the website and/or graphics department because he loves working with computers and sports of any kind so much.

Chad has spoken at numerous state and national disability related conferences about his transition experience from high school to college and now college to the working world. Chad is the Youth Coordinator for the Youth Information Training and Resource Center.

Chad is available to speak to your organization about his life experiences and to promote independence of all persons with disabilities. If you would like more information about how to book Chad for a presentation please e-mail him at radchad58@wi.rr.com

In his free time Chad enjoys attending sporting events, (cheering for the real America's team the Green Bay Packers!), working with computers, adaptive water skiing, and hanging out with his friends. Chad lives an assisted living apartment.
